

The cloudy or milky water we are currently experiencing is not harmful in any way.
The cloudiness is a result of excess air in the water distribution system.
We are working to eliminate the excess air from the system.
Thank you for your patience.